

Gallery Member Application - Gallery 360 at the Slocum House

Gallery 360/Mosaic Arts Alliance is a 501©(3) non-profit art co-operative whose mission is to bring art to the Vancouver, Washington community. We provide exhibition opportunities for emerging and established artists, as well as free art education for youth at the Boys and Girls Club, and the Clark County Juvenile Justice Court, and other area youth.

Terms of Commitment: To be a gallery member at Gallery 360 requires commitment, cooperation, and collaboration. The gallery retains a 25% commission for artwork sold at the gallery or commissioned through the gallery.

Gallery members pay dues of $50 a month. In addition, they are required to pay annual dues of $50 as members of the Mosaic Arts Alliance. Gallery members sign up to work two or three shifts per month at the gallery. New members train with veteran members to learn gallery policies and procedures. Gallery members are required to attend monthly gallery meetings (no less than 75% per year). The meetings take place monthly on the Sunday before the First Friday of each month. Monthly art installations take place on the Monday before First Friday.

Members are required to have their new artwork at the gallery no later than the Sunday before the First Friday of each month. 2D artwork is displayed in rotating spaces on the wall; 3D artwork is displayed on pedestals or in display cases.

Members are encouraged to assist with monthly art installations and to serve on a committee. Committees include First Fridays, Public Relations, Art Installations, and Special Events.

If you are interested in being considered for gallery membership, please fill out this form and follow the instructions. Your application will be juried by current gallery members.
